

Workforce Programs

grow people

Our Workforce Programs assist you in managing common workplace start-up challenges and maximizing long-term growth opportunities.

Workforce Programs are ideal for companies that are new to the area, are experiencing rapid growth, or that want to develop an internal, sustainable training program.

Our programs are customized to meet each company's specific needs. We emphasize creating a positive work attitude and understanding company culture.

Start-Up Preparation

CWT provides a wide range of services for companies new to the area to help them train and develop their workforce. Our services include consulting, training program design, curriculum development and training.

New Employee Training

CWT collaborates with your company's Subject Matter Experts to develop and deliver New Employee Training. Training components typically include your company's human resources training integrated with customized technical, basic, and general workplace skills.

Company-Specific Certification Programs

CWT develops job-related certifications by working with your Subject Matter Experts to:

- Set job-specific skills standards
- Develop customized curriculum
- Deliver training when and where you need it