ADMISSION DEADLINES: Rolling Admissions, however it is strongly recommended that applications for fall semester be received by August 15th and applications for spring be received by December 15th. For priority consideration for competitive scholarships, all admissions and financial aid application materials must be received by March 1st.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS: To apply to one of the BFA Programs, a student must complete an application form, free online or $35.00 paper application fee, submit official transcripts, 2 essays (out of a possible 3 specific essay questions), an activities list or resume, and provide a portfolio of 12-20 recent works.

Transfer Applicants: In addition to the twelve to twenty pieces required for general admissions, transfer students are required to submit additional examples of their artwork if they have completed and received credit for studio art classes at another college. The additional pieces must reflect work completed in the art classes and must be submitted in digital format. An index identifying the size, medium, assignment, and the college course in which the work was executed must be included. All admissions materials, become the property of PNCA and will not be returned to you or released to another party.

Portfolios may be submitted in person (at interview) or digital format. Although not required, one letter of recommendation may be submitted and ACT/SAT scores may be sent to the admissions office. A campus visit is also highly recommended to interested applicants. Once offered admission to PNCA, a nonrefundable tuition deposit of $250 will be required to secure a place in the incoming class.

ARTICULATION AGREEMENT: PCC has an articulation agreement with the Pacific NW College of Art. The agreement can be viewed at <http://www.pcc.edu/programs/university-transfer/transfer-guides/>
