TRANSFER ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

- All potential students need to write a paragraph (approximately 150 words) explaining how you think The Art Institute of Portland will help you achieve your career objectives. Portfolios are encouraged, for all programs, but only required for applicants to the Game Art & Design and Media Arts & Animation majors. If you've taken the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or American College Test (ACT), you are encouraged to submit these scores for evaluation. Placement exams for math and writing may be required.
- Submit an Application for Admission and an Enrollment Agreement
- $50 application fee.
- A $100 tuition deposit is also required and is due within 10 days after the Agreement is signed. You will need to submit an official high school or official GED scores and all official college transcripts when applicable.

Each individual who seeks admission to The Art Institute of Portland will be interviewed by an Assistant Director of Admissions.

The purpose of these interviews is to:

- Explore your background and interests as they relate to the programs offered;
- Assist you in identifying the appropriate area of study consistent with your background and interests; and
- Provide information regarding curriculum offerings and support services available at The Art Institute of Portland.
