Spring Newsletter: Doris will work on it over spring break. Include winter events, spring events, raffle drawing for memberships, employee profile.

Survey Monkey: Results Highlights: 74 of 109 responded. 87% say email is best to communicate. A high number listed networking, breakfast, luncheon's, and support from other women as reasons for being members. Ideas for future activities included Campus Cleanup, Qigong, health & healing, physical activities, tea, horseback riding

Web Profiles: Karen posted profile of Megan Ujakovich-Gometz.

Membership Ideas:

April membership drive is approaching. Include advertising for the raffle where all renewing and new members will be eligible for a drawing on May 1, 2010 to win prizes. Also, any member that makes a successful new referral will also be entered in the drawing
Marketing ideas discussed were business cards for the board, magnets, mousepads – tabled until April meeting.

Planning, ideas, events and other fun stuff:

April 13, 12:00 Rose Pruning workshop at Sylvania in Oak/Fir rooms with John Gualtney-Beaumont
April 17-20 is the National AAWCC Conference in Seattle. Sunday 4/18 is the Awards Breakfast and PCC chapter will nominate both Linda Gerber and Nan Poppe for awards. Cherie and Karen are attending.

Karen is organizing AAWCC breaks on campus to invite people to come during their work break to chat and get membership info. Cheri suggested the TLC for Cascade.

Move Oregon Food Bank volunteer day to Fall In-Service- keep that day as a yearly event
