

1. Outcome	2. Maps to a Core Outcome?	3. Assessment Setting/Method	4. When will assessment take place ?
Act professionally and adhere to ethical and legal responsibilities toward consistent quality patient care.	Professional Competence Communication Community and Environment Responsibility Critical Thinking and Problem Solving Self-Reflection	Clinical Practice Evaluation Rubric (section: Interpersonal Skills & Professionalism)	May-June 2014
Apply knowledge of theory and principles of related content areas (eg. clinical chemistry, hematology, microbiology, immunohematology, etc.) to the clinical laboratory setting in making appropriate professional decisions.	Professional Competence Community and Environment Responsibility Critical Thinking and Problem Solving	National certification exam (ASCP) Clinical Practice Evaluation Rubric (section: Knowledge and Application of Knowledge)	2013 May-June 2014
Select, prepare, perform, correlate and evaluate appropriate laboratory procedures in a high quality, professional, accurate and timely manner.	Professional Competence Critical Thinking and Problem Solving Communication	National certification exam (ASCP) Clinical Practice Evaluation Rubric (sections: Knowledge and Application of Knowledge ; Performance)	2013 May-June 2014
Recognize and identify technical, mechanical and physiological problems within the laboratory and effect resolution of problems according to the protocols of the institution.	Professional Competence Community and Environment Responsibility Critical Thinking and Problem Solving	National certification exam (ASCP) Clinical Practice Evaluation Rubric (sections: Knowledge and Application of Knowledge ; Performance)	2013 May-June 2014
Function effectively as a contributing member of the laboratory team and the broader healthcare delivery system.	Professional Competence Communication Self-reflection	National certification exam (ASCP) Clinical Practice Evaluation Rubric (section: Interpersonal Skills & Professionalism) Post Graduate Survey	2013 May-June 2014  2014

Note: Assessment for the year 2012-2013 will be submitted by June 2014

1. Outcome	2. Maps to a Core Outcome?	3. Assessment Setting/Method	4. When will assessment take place ?
Act professionally and adhere to ethical and legal responsibilities toward consistent quality patient care.	Professional Competence Communication Community and Environment Responsibility Critical Thinking and Problem Solving Self-Reflection	Clinical Practice Evaluation Rubric (section: Interpersonal Skills & Professionalism)	May-June 2015
Apply knowledge of theory and principles of related content areas (eg. clinical chemistry, hematology, microbiology, immunohematology, etc.) to the clinical laboratory setting in making appropriate professional decisions.	Professional Competence Community and Environment Responsibility Critical Thinking and Problem Solving	National certification exam (ASCP) Clinical Practice Evaluation Rubric (section: Knowledge and Application of Knowledge)	2014 May-June 2015
Select, prepare, perform, correlate and evaluate appropriate laboratory procedures in a high quality, professional, accurate and timely manner.	Professional Competence Critical Thinking and Problem Solving Communication	National certification exam (ASCP) Clinical Practice Evaluation Rubric (sections: Knowledge and Application of Knowledge ; Performance)	2014 May-June 2015
Recognize and identify technical, mechanical and physiological problems within the laboratory and effect resolution of problems according to the protocols of the institution.	Professional Competence Community and Environment Responsibility Critical Thinking and Problem Solving	National certification exam (ASCP) Clinical Practice Evaluation Rubric (sections: Knowledge and Application of Knowledge ; Performance)	2014 May-June 2015
Function effectively as a contributing member of the laboratory team and the broader healthcare delivery system.	Professional Competence Communication Self-reflection	National certification exam (ASCP) Clinical Practice Evaluation Rubric (section: Interpersonal Skills & Professionalism) Post Graduate Survey	2014 May-June 2015  2015

Note: Assessment for the year 2013-2014 will be submitted by June 2015

1. Outcome	2. Maps to a Core Outcome?	3. Assessment Setting/Method	4. When will assessment take place ?
Act professionally and adhere to ethical and legal responsibilities toward consistent quality patient care.	Professional Competence Communication Community and Environment Responsibility Critical Thinking and Problem Solving Self-Reflection	Clinical Practice Evaluation Rubric (section: Interpersonal Skills & Professionalism)	May-June 2016
Apply knowledge of theory and principles of related content areas (eg. clinical chemistry, hematology, microbiology, immunohematology, etc.) to the clinical laboratory setting in making appropriate professional decisions.	Professional Competence Community and Environment Responsibility Critical Thinking and Problem Solving	National certification exam (ASCP) Clinical Practice Evaluation Rubric (section: Knowledge and Application of Knowledge)	2015 May-June 2016
Select, prepare, perform, correlate and evaluate appropriate laboratory procedures in a high quality, professional, accurate and timely manner.	Professional Competence Critical Thinking and Problem Solving Communication	National certification exam (ASCP) Clinical Practice Evaluation Rubric (sections: Knowledge and Application of Knowledge ; Performance)	2015 May-June 2016
Recognize and identify technical, mechanical and physiological problems within the laboratory and effect resolution of problems according to the protocols of the institution.	Professional Competence Community and Environment Responsibility Critical Thinking and Problem Solving	National certification exam (ASCP) Clinical Practice Evaluation Rubric (sections: Knowledge and Application of Knowledge ; Performance)	2015 May-June 2016
Function effectively as a contributing member of the laboratory team and the broader healthcare delivery system.	Professional Competence Communication Self-reflection	National certification exam (ASCP) Clinical Practice Evaluation Rubric (section: Interpersonal Skills & Professionalism) Post Graduate Survey	2015 May-June 2016  2016

Note: Assessment for the year 2014-2015 will be submitted by June 2016