

Volunteer Application

Associated Students of Portland Community College Southeast

Volunteer positions are for students who enjoy helping others. This opportunity will help students learn and understand what services and/or policies are at the college. From their personal experience being enrolled they are to help their peers become successful at Portland Community College. The incumbent(s) will obtain experiences in leadership, event planning, office practices and culture. If you know of someone who is interested, or you are that someone, please contact:

Tamara Spycher, PCC Southeast Student Leadership Coordinator, 503-802-2368
