

Potty Press

Brought to you By ASPCC-SE. Week of 10/01/10

PCC Clubs

Are you bored and lonely? Would you like to meet people with the same interests as you? Well, you are in luck! Here at PCC - Southeast Center you can start a club of your choice or join an existing one! Remember: College is more than an education. Getting an application
MTB RM151

ASPCC Office
Hours : Tabor 151
Mon*–Thurs:
10am-8pm
Fri-Sat:
10am –2pm
Monday closed 3-5pm
for an open meeting in
Tabor 135
Please feel free to join
the meetings,

News for the coming week

Phi Theta Kappa

Hey there smarty pants! Do you have a 3.5 GPA and at least 12 community college credits? If you answered "YES," you should join Phi Theta Kappa! Applications and information can be found in ASPCC 151 and office 110.

SCHOLARSHIP RECEPTION
WHERE: GREAT HALL SOUTHEAST CENTER
WHEN: WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 6
3:00PM–4:30PM

Chinese Tutor Demand

Now PCC is trying to hire Chinese Students or get volunteers to help other students in Chinese class. If you are interested in, please contact me at 503-334-7102 or email me at Shengnan.ma@pcc.edu

Want to attend PSU in Fall 2011?

Start planning now!

Planning ahead can save you Time, money, and stress. Let us show you how!

learn about:  Portland State UNIVERSITY

- Applying for Admission
- Paying for college
- Taking appropriate courses
- Making a successful transition to PSU
- Accessing services

Southeast Center
Thursday, October 21, 2010
Location: Mt. Tabor building

We are looking for donations for the mug board. Please bring in to our office at MTH 151 any mugs that you no longer need to be donated to the mug board. For more information please contact our Director of Sustainability rebecca.williams5@pcc.edu

Want a free lovely wrist band? Come to our office (MTH 151) and check out what we offer you.

Free Offer

A Women's Resource Advocate is available to help you.

Contact
Heather Espeland
(503) 802-6116

For submission in the next publication please email aspcc.se@pcc.edu

