

Course Schedule

Note: The course content and requirements may be adjusted in response to institutional, weather or class situations as needed, with adequate notice to students.

Week One	10/1	Introduction to class. Studio tour for new students. Demos of wedging Students should view images on web site for ideas. Demo centering, cylinders, mugs. Work on wheel, wedging, centering, cylinders
Week Two	10/8	Demo hand building techniques; pinch, coil, slab. Demo of throwing bowls Demo of adding a handle Work on hand built projects. Term proposals due for level II students.
Week Three	10/15	Demos of trimming bowls, and throwing plates. Work on bowls and Plates Finish cylinders and mugs. Get as much as you can on the Greenware cart for bisque firing for glaze demo next week
Week Four	10/22	Demo of lidded vessels. Finish plates and bowls. Work on assignments. Demo stoneware and raku glazing. Work on bowls, plates, larger cylinders and hand building projects.
Week Five	10/29	Midterm Review. Touch base with timeline and assignment/project completion. Work on covered jars.
Week Six	11/5	General work day Finish lidded vessels. Glaze one piece for raku firing next week.
Week Seven	11/12	General work day - Raku Firing Finish throwing any assignment not completed. Work on trimming and assembling any unfinished work.
Week Eight	11/19	Last Wet Clay in class AND Last Trim in class Because next week is a holiday, trimming must be completed today. All greenware must be on the bisque cart by Wednesday November 23rd. Work on Glazing
Week Nine	11/26	Thanksgiving Holiday Weekend – No Class
Week Ten	12/3	Last day to glaze for Critiques. We will be watching videos also.
Week Eleven	12/10	Any glazing today will be fired NEXT term Raku Firing
Week Twelve	12/17	Group Final Review/Discussion with Pot-luck Refreshments. Bring your favorite pieces and be ready to talk about them. NOTE: All studio clean-up must be finished on this day.
Last Wet Day in class November 19 Last Trim Day in studio November 23 (Wednesday) (ALL Greenware must be on bisque cart) OPEN LAB SCHEDULE – Fall 2011 Fri – 9:00pm-4:30pm Sat – 3:30pm-6:00pm		