Coach Broadous, Assistant Coach Bell and the team members of the PCC Men’s Basketball were recognized by President and the Board of Directors for their victory as the NWCCAA Champions.

Keith Gregory presented the Board of Directors with an award from Storm Water Solutions for the PCC Climb Storm Water Plaza Project.

INFORMATION SESSIONS
OCCA
Andrea Henderson, Executive Director Ms. Henderson reported on the happening in Salem, including the state legislation and the budget as it affects community colleges. She discussed the transition from the State Board of Education to the Higher Education Coordinating Commission (HECC), the strategic conversation process at OCCA, and budget projections and predictions for the 2015 Legislative Session.

Legislative Student Interns
Kristin Watkins, Associate Vice President, Advancement
She introduced the panel of student leaders. She thanked the Student District Council, Dr. Michael Sonnleitner, Faculty Advisor, and Rob Wagner. Annalicia Whittaker, Task Force Chair, introduced the interns from the 3rd cohort: Daniel Kim, Brandon Kaskawal, Madeleine Galo, and Joel Reyes. Ms. Whittaker gave a brief overview of the program and what it does.

Faculty Focus
Russ Jones, Instructor, Automotive
Russ Jones presented information on the program review that the Automotive Department just completed. The goal of the Automotive Department is to prepare students to enter the workforce as automotive service technicians. He showed the latest technologies used in the industry and how the students are being taught. Students in the program are prepared as much as possible to what it is like to work in a shop.

Inter-Collegiate Soccer at PCC
Neal Naigus, Assistant to the President, Karen Sanders, Division Dean, Rock Creek and Dee McQueen, Instructor, Physical Education and Volunteer Coach
The group presented the history on PCC Soccer, the Rock Creek club was started in 2012, as a co-ed team. There are now 4 different teams, co-ed team, women’s club team, women’s school team and a men’s school team. There are three volunteer coaches working with the teams.
The coaches and the players also volunteer in the community. It is proven that student retention can be attributed to Community College athletics.

Internal Audit
David Terry, Internal Auditor
Mr. Terry gave a report out of the 2013 Audits, including: Telephone Tax Follow-Up Audit; Technology Fee/TSS Audit; Allied Health, Emergency, and Legal Services Division at Cascade Campus; Public Safety & Clery Act Compliance Audit; and Corrections Education Follow-Up Audit.

Alumni Phone-a-thon
Kristin Watkins, Associate Vice President, Advancement and Kim Kono, Director, Foundation Development
Ms. Watkins and Ms. Kono presented a summary of the results from the Phone-a-thon.
From October 2013-February 2014 the Foundation reached out and spoke with 4,600 alumni from PCC. The goal was not to solicit them for a contribution but to connect with them and find out more about their experience at PCC. Alums are important to PCC as ambassadors, advocates, employers and donors. Most alums need to feel engaged in order to give. The goal of the phone-a-thon was to personally speak and communicate with the alums, understand how they are currently engaging, how they want to engage with the College.

Strategic Planning Update
Randy McEwen, Vice President
A brief update was given on the potential strategic themes that the committee has formed. Dr. Brown will host campus and center conversations in April to solicit feedback and more ideas. The steering committee will be developing potential strategic objectives that support the themes. A key in this is to draw on prior work in the College, including the September BHAGS, the SPACES input, and roadshow comments. The committee will meet every Friday afternoon in April. The plan is to have a first draft of the strategic plan in June.
