None

BUSINESS MEETING
Chair Frisbee proposed approval of Resolutions 14-093 through 14-105. The motion passed unanimously. Harper/Palm

PUBLIC COMMENT ON NON AGENDA ITEMS
George Choban, Washington County resident, 28 year instructor at PCC—addressed the board regarding his concern of technology at PCC and that they do not provide critical thinking.

REPORTS
AP and Faculty Federation
Mandy Ellerton, Instructor, Humanities
Ms. Ellerton commented that they are working on getting students as well as faculty to PCC Lobby Day. Local 2277 is devoting time to Oregon Food Bank this spring. Faculty is concerned about class sizes in the higher level courses. Classes with low enrollment numbers are routinely canceled because they are not cost effective for the College. Some of these canceled classes are important for transfer students in English or Humanities.

Classified
Deborah Hall, President, Classified Union
There will be an annual general membership meeting next Wednesday. They are working on putting back together building representative program by campus as Classified employees are not feeling engaged. Bob Hanks is to be applauded for moving the Center in the right direction.

ASPCC:
Rachel Black Elk, Chair, District Student Council
ASPCC is planning to do a bowling party for the Annual End of the Year Party. They are also working on getting students to the PCC Day at the Capitol. Budget committee using critical thinking skills developing transparency, stakeholders

Board Members:
Director Ladd commented that she had the opportunity to attend the Black History Celebration at Cascade on Wednesday.

Director Palm commented on the trip to Washington, DC. She thanked the board assistant and Rob Wagner for support.

The Optional Board Meeting on March 6, 2014 is canceled.

She noted that board members need more advance notice on the PCC events to be able to attend events.

President Report:
Dr. Brown noted that we are lucky to have a very engaged board. He commented on success of Future Connect. He noted that HECC and OEIB will be holding a joint meeting at Rock Creek on March 11, 2014 and the Governor will be there for a bill signing. There will be a formal building opening for Southeast in the future. The Gala will be happening on May 17, 2014.
