What is a LITE Listener?

LITE Listeners are PCC faculty and staff members who have been trained to offer support, resources, and compassion to community members (students, faculty & staff) experiencing difficult intercultural interactions on campus.

LITE Listeners will...
- Offer validation
- Share skill-building techniques
- Help you process your experiences
- Connect you with support resources
- Support you in problem-solving and conflict resolution
LITE is a resource for students, faculty, and staff who would like to have a conversation about their experiences in the following areas:

- culture
- ability
- sexual orientation
- national origin
- ethnicity and race
- age
- faith
- gender identity & expression
- veteran/service member status
- other aspects of personal identity

Who can benefit from LITE?
