Entry Specifications:
Each artist may submit up to 3 pieces. There is no size limitation on submissions and it is not necessary to frame 2-D work. However, accepted works on paper which are not framed, will be pinned to the wall—plexi or glass will not be provided. Any piece requiring special installation procedures should be delivered with clear type written instructions and appropriate hardware. Any artwork with special installation procedures without instructions and hardware will be hung at the discretion of the gallery or not hung at all. Please be aware that jury selection will take place before work is installed, so you may wish to include a photo of the installed work if there is complicated installation involved.

- Each piece must have 2 entry labels:
  * First one affixed to the upper right corner of the back of the piece or in an appropriate location for 3D works.
  * Second label, with optional artist statements, filled out and delivered when presenting your work. (Statements can be typed on a different page with your name and attached).

- All work, even work declared “not for sale” must have a declared value in order to calculate insurance rate for the work. No work will have a stated insurance value of more than $250 without permission of the gallery director. Although precautions are taken to protect the art, PCC cannot guarantee reimbursement for lost or damaged work.

- North View Gallery takes no commission, and prices will not be posted. Any inquiries regarding sales will be referred directly to the artist.

- Submission of work to this exhibition constitutes permission to have it photographed and reproduced at the discretion of the Gallery.
