Angela McMahon, COVID-19 Reopening Director

Resumption Stages

PCC's plan for resuming in-person operations incorporates staged and gradual steps, a framework to aid in planning

COVID-19 Opening Leadership Team (COLT) determines the stage for each term, 3 - 4 months in advance

Course offerings aligned with stages by the Academic Affairs Council

In-person services and support operations during each stage based on student and faculty needs, balanced with health and safety protections

Course offering alignment to stages

Remote Operations: Human health care clinicals that are required to continue by legal obligations or accreditation, and that require in-person contact or skills

Limited Reopening: Courses essential to maintaining the health and safety of Oregonians

Modified Reopening: Courses essential to the completion of degrees or certifications and benefitting the economic viability of Oregonians

Sustained Reopening: Courses with one or more of the characteristics in prior stages

Full Reopening: Courses and activities are offered and available online, remote, and/or in-person with a normal PCC approval process.
