

April 18, 2024

24-103

OFFICIAL RECOGNITION THAT FACULTY APPRECIATION WEEK WILL BE CELEBRATED MAY 6-10, 2024

PREPARED BY: Patti Battles, Executive Assistant, Office of the Vice President of Academic Affairs

APPROVED BY: Frank Goulard, President, PCC Federation for Faculty and Academic Professionals
Katy Ho, Vice President, Academic Affairs

REPORT: The College acknowledges the paramount importance of education to the future vibrancy of our community; to that end, our esteemed faculty members are integral to the academic excellence that PCC delivers to both students and the wider community.

They collaborate directly with industry, academic professionals, business partners, and community members to cultivate a conducive and inclusive learning environment.

Through their diverse talents and unwavering dedication, they contribute to the holistic development of students throughout their academic journey.

They play a vital role in the success of our students, the college, and the community at large. Their dedication and support not only foster academic achievement and contribute to the advancement of our institution but also positively impact the broader community by creating a more educated and empowered society.

RECOMMENDATION: That the Board of Directors proclaims May 6-10, 2024, to be FACULTY APPRECIATION WEEK and that the Board of Directors strongly encourages all members of our community to join in this observance, recognizing the dedication and hard work of these individuals.