Portland, OR 97229

CAMP Application Priority Deadline: March 1

The College Assistance Migrant Program is a federally-funded program designed to support students from migrant and seasonal farm worker backgrounds during their first year in college. The program provides students with both financial assistance and support services, with the goal of preparing them to continue and complete their education. In order to be eligible for CAMP services, students need to meet the following list of guidelines established by the U.S. Department of Education.

Eligibility Requirements Checklist:

- The student or his/her parent(s)/ legal guardian(s) or immediate family member must have worked at least 75 days within the last two years in agriculture as a migrant or seasonal farm worker. This includes any activity directly related to the production of crops, dairy products, poultry, livestock, cultivation or harvesting of trees, fishery, nursery, and forestry work.

-OR-

- Be or have been eligible to participate in the Migrant Education Program OR the High School Equivalency Program (HEP) OR the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA), Section 167 National Farmworker Jobs Program.
- Be a U.S. Citizen or Resident. Be eligible to apply for the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).
- Have employment verification as a migrant or seasonal farm worker.
- Be in their first year of college studies or a PCC student with less than 36 earned college credits.
- Plan to enroll full time (12 or more credits per term) during your first year at Portland Community College.
