

MENTOR A NEW CTE TEACHER TODAY! BE PART OF THE SOLUTION FOR EDUCATION IN OREGON.

Oregon needs CTE teachers! The shortage of high school career and technical education teachers in Oregon is a strain on our economy and future generations. We urgently need high school CTE teachers in the following sectors:

Advanced
Manufacturing

Construction

Healthcare

Information Technology

NEW CTE TEACHERS NEED SUPPORT

To be successful in any field, aspiring leaders require role models and guidance. This is especially true in education.

- Create a legacy in your field ~ The knowledge and experience you have teaching CTE can influence a new teacher and impact the success of our economy.
- Pay it forward ~ Who helped you be the best CTE teacher you could be? Mentoring a new CTE teacher is your opportunity to give back and ensure more young people are able to achieve their educational goals.

OREGON'S NEW CTE TEACHERS NEED MENTORS

Mentor new CTE teachers while they work to complete their CTE Licensure requirements at an accelerated pace over 15 months.

For mentoring a new teacher you will receive:

- An honorarium for your participation
- A two-day mentor training

Questions? Contact Us:

Lane County - Janet Golden
(541) 461-8224, jgolden@lesd.k12.or.us

Portland Metro Area - Andrew Roessler
(971) 722-5336, aroessle@pcc.edu

Coordinated in partnership with Lane ESD, the Oregon Department of Education, and Portland Community College.

- ◆ Do you want to create a legacy?
- ◆ Do you want to pay it forward?

Step up and apply to mentor a new CTE teacher at:
www.pcc.edu/pathtoctelicensure

NOTE: The contents of this promotion were developed under a grant from the U.S. Department of Education. However, the contents do not necessarily represent the policy of the Department of Education, and endorsement by the Federal Government should not be assumed.