- Scholarship reviewers are looking at the whole student
 - Career goal
 - Educational plan
 - Inspiration for your studies
 - Major
 - GPA
 - Relevant work experience
 - Relevant volunteer work
 - Reference (bonus points, not required)

How do scholarships work if I get financial aid?

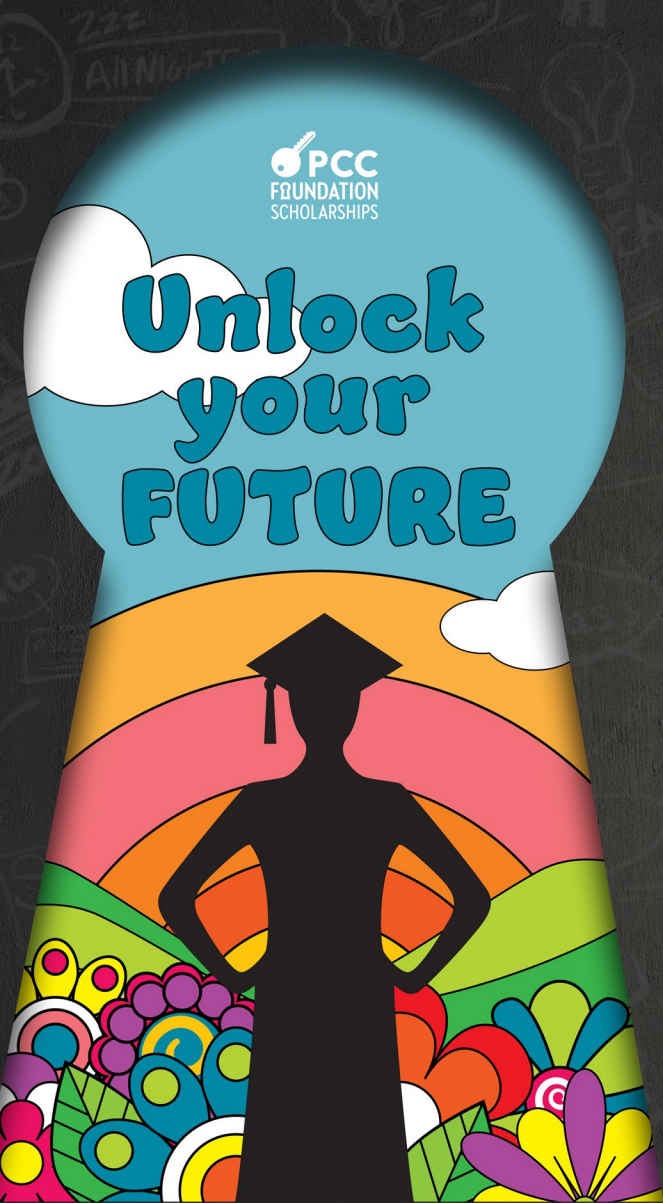

- Think of your tuition and costs as a bucket. Then you fill it with free money first, then what you can pay and finally, loans. Understand loans before you take them (subsidized vs. unsubsidized) and repayment plans.

Reviewing scholarship applications

- Each application is read and scored by 2 trained employees for PCC Foundation General scholarships and those scores are averaged
- Review letter of reference (if provided) and bonus points applied
- PCC Scholarship Program Officer reviews applications for eligibility in each pool by pulling information from your student record
- Some “apply-to” opportunities are narrowed to a finalist pool and reviewed by appointed committees
