You are invited to experience plays by the students in the Illumination Project. The issues presented affect the lives of PCC students everyday. The interactive format of the theater allows people to step up, step in, and intervene when the characters needs an advocate - you can make a change. Be part of the solution!

This program is proudly sponsored by the generous support of the Equity Foundation, Hoover Family Foundation, Ford Foundation, Multicultural Center, Women’s Resource Center, Proceeds from the Vagina Monologues, and the PCC Sociology and Theater Departments.
