

Coming Fall Term to Sylvania Campus:

Introduction to International Studies (INTL 201)

Title of course:
INTL 201:
Introduction to International Studies

CRN: 47067

Time:
Tu/Th
9:00 – 10:50 a.m.

Location:
Sylvania Campus

Instructor:
Bryan Hull

INTL 201:

- examines themes such as geography, history, culture, economics, politics and religion from global and interdisciplinary perspectives.
- fosters the development of a multidimensional perspective of the world.
- develops core skills in academic reading, writing, and analysis to prepare you for success in a global knowledge economy.
- has no required textbook.
- final project options range from individual research papers to group reports and Community Based Learning projects.
- counts towards a Global Studies Focus Award.
- fulfills the Gen Ed and Cultural Literacy requirements.
- provides an excellent foundation for students considering transfer degrees and careers in fields such as business, government, the law, journalism, international relations, public health, social work, urban planning, and education.
- enhances careers of students earning CTE degrees if they enter the field with a solid founding in global issues.

Prerequisites: WR 115, RD 115 and MTH 20 or equivalent placement test scores.

For more information, visit:
catalog.pcc.edu/focusawards/globalstudiesfocusawards or contact Bryan Hull at bhull@pcc.edu or Usha Ramanujam at usha.ramanujam@pcc.edu.

Portland
Community College