

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

PCC SOUTHEAST CAMPUS

WOMEN'S RESOURCE CENTER

Join us throughout February/March to honor the myriad ways that Black Women have contributed to a better future for all women

All events at the SE WRC- MTH 148

FILMS ABOUT INFLUENTIAL BLACK WOMEN

Thursdays in February

Film begins at 2pm, convo after

- 2/9- Angela Davis and Prison Abolition
- 2/16- The intersections of Blackness, Queerness and being a Transgender Woman
- 2/23- The intersections of Blackness, gender and disability
- 3/2- Call to Action

COLLAGE/ WALL ART PROJECT

During the hours the center is open, create a large collage of bios and pictures of influential black women. Use what we have here or bring your own. This will live on the wall in the SE WRC to see long after Black History Month.

- Tuesday- 12pm-3:30pm
- Wednesday- 12pm-4pm
- Thursday- 12pm-4pm

THE ANTI-RACIST DECK AND A CALL TO ACTION

All are welcome, but white and non-black POC will be encouraged to chat to have honest conversations about their understanding of race, the ways that feminism has harmed Black Women and make at least one commitment to do better.

- Thursday, 3/2
 - 3-5

All events are free and open to PCC Students. Attendees can be entered into a raffle for a gift card (local black owned business)
