

Financial Planning During Layoff and Transition

Take control of your finances during a layoff or career transition. This workshop will show you how to quickly assess your financial situation, prioritize expenses, and create a short-term plan to stretch your resources while planning your next steps. We will cover managing income changes, severance, and benefits, and highlight resources that can support your financial stability. You'll leave with practical tools and clear guidance to make confident financial decisions as you navigate what's next.

Date: February 4, 2026
