

Tigard High School EDUCATION

Students will learn:

- All aspects of human development birth through age 8
- About early education and family studies
- To prepare meaningful activities for children
- To be creative, problem solve, and collaborate with a group
- Gain work and leadership skills
- To professionally engage children in meaningful play
- To use positive guidance strategies
- To observe and reflect on children's learning and development

PCC Related Programs

- Early Childhood Education
- Family and Human Services
- Elementary Education
- Paraprofessional Educator
- CTE Educator
- Childcare Aide

View pcc.edu/programs for all PCC programs

Local Industry Career Opportunities

Elementary School Teachers

Secondary School Teachers

Kindergarten Teachers

Middle School Teachers

Special Education Teachers, Kindergarten and Elementary School

Educational, Guidance and Career Counselors and Advisors

Click on the QR code for more employment data

Tigard CTE Program of Study

Child Development 1, 2

Early Childhood Practicum

For full course sequence, see your guidance counselor

PCC Dual Credit Offerings

- Introduction to Early Education and Family Studies
- Observation and Guidance 1

Click on QR code for more information about dual credit

