

Creekside Community High School

NATURAL RESOURCES

Students will learn:

- How to work as part of a team
- A wide variety of ecological stewardship skills, including planting, invasive species removal, trail-building, wildlife management, and more
- Project management and design
- How to lead and teach others
- How to cultivate a healthy relationship with the natural world

PCC Related Programs

- Environmental Studies
- Fire Protection
- Landscape Technology
- Geology and General Science

View pcc.edu/programs for all PCC programs

Student Leadership Experience

Cascade Education Corps

- Hands-on, paid, multidisciplinary experience where students spend a year with a cohort of 6-10 students, learning and working outdoors for the benefit of their local environment

Creekside CTE Program of Study

Cascade Education Corps A

Cascade Education Corps B

Cascade Education Corps C

Cascade Education Corps D

Local Industry Career Opportunities

Arborists

Environmental Educators

Environmental Scientists

Natural Resource Technicians

Wildland Firefighters

Click on the QR code for more employment data

