

Gaston High School

AGRICULTURE

Students will learn:

- The role agriculture, food and natural resources play in the society and the economy
- The components of a small gas engine as they disassemble and reassemble it.
- Employability skills and technical skills that can be used in careers related to the ag mechanics field
- To diagnose, treat and maintain animal health
- Analyze case studies and use problem solving skills related to the veterinary field.
- Conduct physical exams of animals and understand basic diagnostic tools.

PCC Related Programs

- Diesel Service Technology
- Electronic Engineering Technology
- Facilities Maintenance – HVAC
- Landscape Technology
- Machine Manufacturing Technology
- Welding

View pcc.edu/programs for all PCC programs

Local Industry Career Opportunities

Foresters

Conservation & Environmental Scientists

Environmental Science Technicians

Farmers, Ranchers and Other Agriculture Managers

Farm Equipment Mechanics and Service Technicians

Veterinary Assistant, Veterinary Technician, Veterinarian

Animal Nutritionist

Mechanic

Click on the QR code for more employment data

Gaston CTE Program of Study

Intro to Agriculture

Animal Science

Veterinary Science

Small Gas Engines

Agricultural Independent Study

For full course sequence, see your guidance counselor

Career Technical Student Organization

OREGON
FFA ASSOCIATION

