

Sherwood High School AGRICULTURE

Students will learn:

- The role agriculture, food, and natural resources play in society and the economy
- How to use power tools, equipment, and machinery
- Greenhouse management
- To fabricate and repair

PCC Related Programs

- Landscape Technology
- Diesel Service Technology
- Electronic Engineering Technology
- Facilities Maintenance – HVAC
- Machine Manufacturing Technology
- Welding

View pcc.edu/programs for all PCC programs

Local Industry Career Opportunities

Foresters

Conservation & Environmental Scientists

Environmental Science Technicians

Farmers, Ranchers and Other Agriculture Managers

Farm Equipment Mechanics and Service Technicians

Click on the QR code for more employment data

Industry Recognized Credential

- Pre-Apprenticeship Certificate

Career Technical Student Organization

- Future Farmers of America (FFA Ag Education)

Sherwood CTE Program of Study

Plant & Greenhouse Management - Horticulture

Wildlife and Forestry Sciences

Welding – Small Engines Tech

Advanced Metal Fabrication

Animal and Veterinary Science

CTE Apprentice – Metals & Ag. Science

For full course sequence, see your guidance counselor

PCC Dual Credit Offerings

- Beginning Shielded Metal Arc Welding
- Beginning Wire Welding
- Basing Welding Practice

Click on the QR for more information about dual credit

