SCIENCE, MATH, ENGLISH, ESOL
and DEVELOPMENTAL EDUCATION TEACHERS

DATES OF EMPLOYMENT: Six to thirty hours of instruction between June 28 – August 6, 2010, depending on subject(s) taught

COMPENSATION: Salary $30/hour (Non-instructional rate, dependent on experience and qualifications)

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION: April 30, 2010 (or until positions are filled)

JOB DESCRIPTION:
The Upward Bound Summer School is a six-week program of intensive, math, science, computer and related language arts instruction for 38 high school students from four area high schools. Participating students show interest in continuing their education beyond the secondary level, but their potential is constrained by their economic and social circumstances. Teachers teach 4 - 12 hours a week of lecture, lab or special projects. Class format is flexible (traditional and non traditional) but the emphasis is on hands-on-learning, application of knowledge and introduction to career opportunities. Classroom and laboratory projects will be done at Sylvania campus with access to PCC facilities.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:
- Bachelors Degree in education, Science, Math, or English
- Teaching experience (experience teaching high school students preferred.)

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:
- Ability to relate to and work with students from low-income and culturally diverse backgrounds
- Ability to lead and motivate high school students to:
  - Strive for graduation from post secondary institution
  - Pursue a career requiring post secondary study
  - Comply with Upward Bound policies
- Ability to integrate computer resources into content area coursework
- Interest in teaching study skills
- Interest in teaching reading skills, especially in content areas
