

Dual Admission and Enrollment Program

What is it?

An opportunity for students to complete one application process for enrollment at Portland Community College and Oregon State University. The program is open to all students pursuing their first bachelor's degree. Many students in the program also earn an associate's degree, or students who have earned a bachelor's degree interested in completing a second bachelor's while possibly earning an associate's degree.

What are the benefits?

- One application process for both PCC and OSU
- PCC/OSU advising available at either campus
- Increased flexibility in scheduling with access to more classes
- Opportunity to access services and participate in college life on both campuses:
 - Student internship program*
 - Study Abroad opportunities*
 - Work-study opportunities at OSU*
 - OSU Honors College at OSU*
 - Dixon Recreation Center*
 - Student Health Services*
 - Admission at OSU Student prices to PAC-10 athletic events*
 - Involvement in student activities (music, theater, art, and intramural sports)*
- Financial aid available for qualified students admitted under the dual admission/enrollment program
- Access to library and computer lab resources on both campuses
- Skill-building through preparatory courses at PCC and lower division courses at either PCC or OSU
- Easier transition from community college to university
