CRIME ALERT

Sylvania Campus Bookstore Theft Monday, February 7, 2022

The persons and car depicted in these photos are believed to have been involved in the theft of a Portland Community College (PCC) Sylvania bookstore employee's wallet, on Monday, February 7, 2022. It is believed that the persons arrived at the bookstore around 2:05 pm in the depicted car and then entered bookstore, accessed a restricted area and removed the wallet from the employee's purse. Following the theft, the employee was notified by her bank that her card was fraudulently being used in the Clackamas, OR area.

As a reminder be sure to secure your personal belongings while at work, clearly designate restricted areas that are employee accessible only and report any concerning behavior to Public Safety. If you have any information regarding this incident please contact Public Safety at 971 722 4902.
