I. Name

Educational Advisory Council (EAC)

II. Object of the Organization

Mission

To work with the college community to explore and examine issues concerning the educational experience at Portland Community College and to create and recommend district-wide policies and standards

Goals

1. To provide opportunities for exchanging views regarding educational issues at PCC—whether initiated by students, faculty, staff, or administration. To create and propose policies responsive to these issues in light of the input offered and to recommend changes to the curriculum and degrees and certificates, as well as new degrees and certificates.

2. To facilitate open and honest communication regarding educational policies to all of those affected by those policies.

3. To provide an open forum for all voices within the instructional and student development communities.

4. To advance discussion of administrative decisions affecting the educational experience.

Objectives

The EAC crafts and revises policies and standards pertaining to academic, curricular, student development, and student governance issues. The objectives are:

1. To work within standing and ad hoc committees, the EAC crafts and revises policies and standards pertaining to academic, curricular, student development and student governance issues.

2. To accept and review recommendations about policies, curriculum, degrees and certificates, and standards from the Standing Committees and ad hoc committees.

3. To make recommendations about policies, curriculum, degrees and certificates, and standards to the District President.

4. To periodically review existing policies and standards and to anticipate and respond to the changing needs of the PCC community.

   2. Minutes of an EAC meeting shall be distributed within fourteen days following the meeting.
   3. Agenda and minutes shall be distributed to the college community.

VII. Task Forces

A. Purpose
   1. When an issue being considered by the EAC needs additional research before the body can reach a decision, the Chair of the EAC may form a special Task Force by appointing a Task Force Chair (or Chairs).
   2. The particular question assigned to the task force will be specified by the EAC Chair in consultation with the EAC Leaders who will take into consideration the connection of the particular issue to the overall decision-making structure at PCC.

B. Responsibility
   It will be the responsibility of a Task Force to:
   1. Research the question as thoroughly as possible.
   2. Share the status of its research with the EAC at each of its monthly meetings.
   3. Update the EAC Chair between the monthly EAC meetings and to inform the Chair of any issues that may be presenting obstacles.
   4. Conclude its research within a time frame as specified by the EAC Chair.
   5. Bring recommendations to the EAC and to include the advantages and disadvantages of each recommendation.
C. Membership

1. Membership on a Task Force will be determined by the Task Force Chair(s) in consultation with the EAC Leaders.

2. Membership shall be representative of the groups who have a vested interest in the issue under discussion, and the membership needs to remain representative of these interests for the duration of the Task Force.
