Domestic Violence Awareness Month

Join the Women’s Resource Center for Voices Behind the Razorwire lead by author Davonna Livingston who will share her own personal experience with childhood abuse. Livingston will also break down the importance of having open discussions about abuse.
October 21, 11AM–12:50PM, Terrell Hall 112

Building a World of Peace with educator and activist Tony Porter

Presented by The Women’s Resource (Cascade) and The Passage to Higher Education. Tom Porter is the co-founder of A Call To Men: The National Association of Men and Women Committed to Ending Violence Against Women. Tony Porter is internationally recognized for his effort to end violence against women, and he has been working in the social justice arena for over twenty years.
Free. Donations are welcome. Proceeds will support the Women’s Resource Center and The Passage Program to Higher Education. Silent Auction item: 365 Days with Dad, original art by Chabi Bayoc. passport@pcc.com, 971.722.5842

The Clothesline Project

The Clothesline Project is a national movement that addresses the issue of domestic violence against women. The display vehicle for people affected by domestic violence to express their emotions by decorating a shirt. Shirts are hung on a clothesline to be viewed by others as a testimony to the problem of domestic violence.
October 7–10, Student Center Hallway.

Student Survey

Are you a student who have concerns about issues on campus? Would you like to have your voice heard?
ASPCC would love to hear from you regarding the issues you feel are most and least important by completing the Student Survey. Our goal is to complete 1500 surveys by October 21. Help us reach it! Stop by the The Underground (SC 03) to complete your survey today. shannon.olive15@pcc.edu

The Women’s Resource Center

The Women’s Resource Center – WRC of Cascade campus is dedicated to provide a supportive, comfortable and safe environment to all PCC students. We offer programs to support personal and academic growth and provide ties to community and campus resources.
Student Service Building 103 (Next to the Business Windows)
The Passage to Higher Education
The Passage is an organized network of students, educators and professionals committed to serving all students of African descent on their path through higher education. We want to support you, so find us in the WRC, SSB 103.

Cinderella Cinder-fella

presented by the Black Student Union. Fashion and film makeup artist Daniel Medina will show you how to become Cinderella or Cinder-fella by purchasing reasonable products and wearing and using certain colors. Daniel will help you to transform into that princess or the prince “at midnight” towards your professional career.
October 11, 5PM
Terrall Hall 112

Veterans Resource Center Open House
Come meet the new staff and see what the VRC have to offer.
All students, staff and faculty are welcome. There will be light snacks and drinks!
October 14, 1PM–4PM
SC 124 (next to the library)

8th Annual Northwest Indian Storytelling Festival

An evening of tribal storytelling with traditional drumming and singing as well as a silent auction.
Free for PCC students, $20 suggested donation for community members.
October 18, 7:30PM–10PM, MAHB Auditorium

Phi Theta Kappa Members Meeting

Learn about the benefits of the international honors society for the two year colleges and what Phi Theta Kappa can do for you! Starting October 8, every other Tuesday, 2:30–3:30PM
The Underground Resource Room.

Cascade Bike Shed
FREE PARKING for all bikes.
Don’t have a bike? Come to The Underground or info desk and ask for a bike rental application. $15 gets you a commuter ready mountain bike for the quarter. Find Tom at the Bike Shed.