

Bill Nye
123 Science Guy Ln.
Portland, OR, 97217
503-978-5600
billnye@science.guy.com

OBJECTIVE:

Entry level position as a Medical Laboratory Technician
--

LABORATORY WORK EXPERIENCE:

Phlebotomist/Specimen Processor, Providence Portland Medical Center 2006

- Three years in-patient phlebotomy, appropriate and timely receipt, labeling, and processing of laboratory specimens, phone support services, multi-tasking with various interruptions, organization of work according to testing priority, Cerner Millennium and STAR computer systems, triage/STAT response experience
- Familiar with following laboratory automated analyzers: Vitek, BacT/Alert, MiniVIDAS, Sysmex XE-2100, MTX coag analyzer

EDUCATION:

AAS, Medical Laboratory Technician, Portland Community College, expected 8/2009
Certificate, Phlebotomy, Clark College, 6/2006
MLT- ASCP pending 8/2009

CLINICAL SITE EXPERIENCE:

Legacy Emanuel Hospital: Microbiology
Legacy Salmon Creek Hospital: Hematology, Coagulation, Urinalysis, Chemistry
Providence Portland Medical Center: Blood bank

EMPLOYMENT SUMMARY:

Various Customer Service Positions 2004-2006

Transferable Skills:

- Work well under pressure managing priorities and noticing team member work styles
- Plan ahead and organize work space for personal, coworker and customer safety
- Handle difficult situations independently using non-judgmental attitude
- Follow directions easily
- Communicate well with others by carefully listening and thinking before responding