

Jean Piaget

705 Van Gogh
Portland, OR
503-978-5600
jean.piaget@pcc.edu

Objective: Entry level Art Instructor in the Deaf community

Summary of Qualifications

- 15 years experience as a teachers assistant supporting teachers and classroom activities for lower income and educationally challenged schools
- Experienced in handling K-8 at risk children's behaviors, learning and life concerns
- Professional artist in several mediums - incorporate creative curriculum design to reach learners through sensory learning

Education

A.A.S, Para- Educator -Transfer Degree expected

6-2010
GPA 3.0

Teaching Experience

- Use art forms to and visual techniques to enhance teacher lesson plans increased student success and learning outcomes
- Reviewed subject plans and discussed changes with teachers to increase student attention, focus and concentration
- Used sensitivity when making suggestions to improve lesson plans
- Solicited donations for art supplies, clothing and financial support for limited budget programs for minority based schools
- Create mind maps and used techniques to activate all of the senses and engage student interest
- Co-developed mosaic project to beautify neighborhood and encourage participation in the arts.
- Taught art techniques to 15-17 1st -5th grade students with no previous art experience
- Encouraged design patterns and self expression and self portraiture
- Taught children to use art as therapy for stress release, self esteem building and character development. Used non- offensive subjects as themes
- Visited classes to teach art projects using recycled materials
- Coached 6th-8th co-ed volleyball – encouraged team behavior and handling race victimization from children and parents

Sample Educational Art Projects*King Elementary & Ockley Green Middle School*

Mosaic tile, Faberge eggs, fabric arts, sand painting, wood burning, Ink – sketching, painting, drawing, ceramics, flip books, cartooning, clay, cooking, costuming, drama (acting and set design)