

Education

AAS, Ophthalmic Medical Technician, Portland, OR (expected) 6/2009
Presidents list - three consecutive terms, Research Paper: Intacs GPA 3.8
Certificate, Certified Nursing Assistant, Mt. Hood Community College, Gresham, OR 6/2006
Practicum Sites: Adventist Medical Center -Emergency Dept.
Legacy -Mount Hood Hospital – Post Operative Dept.
Greenlawn

- Prepare rooms, take vitals and assist medical staff in highly stressful environment attending to multiple health care practitioners simultaneously and how to assist them with minimal interruption
- Assisted medically fragile adults with daily living tasks and medical needs

Ophthalmic Technician Practicum Experience

PNW Eye Specialist, Portland, OR

- Conduct history with sensitivity to patient needs and emotional state in fast paced practice
- Assisted with room set up and clean up according to safe medical practices
- Progressed to escorting patients and performing, vision and motility testing without supervision
- Observed minor surgery and noticed how the medical team works together for patient care
- Pulled charts and filed orders, balancing this with other office tasks

Clear View Clinic, PC, Beaverton, OR

- Conducted unsupervised Humphrey visual field
- Escorted patients and conducted full work up
- Performed motility, color vision, Amsler grid, and confrontation visual fields for serving predominantly geriatric patients with attention to additional physical conditions requiring mobility assistance
- Requested medical information routinely, regarding medication changes, allergies or changes in medical conditions for complete medical assessment for fragile medical conditions
- Assisted medical billers with coding and interpreting diagnosis and procedure

Kaiser Sunnyside, Portland, OR

- As part of medical history take blood pressure and pulse readings. Document information and let patients know the result for patient comfort. Suggest patients ask the physician for clarification of medical information in a polite and clear manner
- Administer medications for dilation and to assess eye pressure using Tonopen
- Remain focused on medical procedures while making the patient feel supported and welcome redirect patient emotional behavior and encourage patient open discussion with doctor
- Document all patient concerns, and report noteworthy observations verbally to supervisor
- Performed HRT for practice and observed OCT and laser surgery for skill development
- Conducted histories on individuals who were mentally compromised while keeping professional demeanor

Volunteer Experience

Vision Screening, Albina Head Start - Adapted testing method according to child's comfort level

Helmet Drive, Emmanuel Hospital - Assisted participants with helmet fitting for health and safety awareness

Volunteer, Adventist Medical Center- Comfort, console and entertain patients in all stages of illness respecting privacy, cultural norms and confidentiality

Work History

Custodian, R&R Service, Inc., Portland, OR 2008-Present

Customer Service Representative, Simplex Logistics, Portland, OR 2007-2008